Tracking an Application

Once you have submitted your Market Entry Application, it will be reviewed by PCSE and will undergo a first referral with the relevant NHS England Regional Office.

Should the relevant NHS England Regional Office require additional information, the application will be returned to you via PCSE online for action and resubmission.

You will receive an automated email from PCSE to prompt you to log into PCSE online. The application will become editable but only in the sections where the relevant missing information/documentation is required. Once you have provided the relevant missing information/documentation, you can resubmit the application back to PCSE.

PCSE will liaise with the relevant NHS England Regional Office before the application is notified to interested parties. Once the application has been notified to interested parties, PCSE will collate all necessary information relating to the application and transpose the information into a report. The report will then be submitted to the relevant NHS England Regional Office who will make a decision on your application.
